Bright House Networks, LLC Executed: February 24, 2009

STATEMENT CONCERNING PROCEDURES OF BRIGHT HOUSE NETWORKS, LLC AND AFFILIATES TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH CPNI REGULATIONS

The internal operating procedures and practices of Bright House Networks, LLC and its affiliates¹ identified in footnote one below, (collectively, "Bright House" or "the Company") are adequate to ensure the Company's compliance with the FCC's rules governing the use and disclosure of CPNI. See 47 C.F.R. § 64.2001, et. seq. Compliance with such rules is demonstrated by the policies, practices, training and audit procedures described herein. Following is a brief explanation of the procedures that Bright House employs to ensure such compliance.

Authentication and Password Safeguards. The Company has implemented specific policies and procedures to comply with the FCC's most recent rules concerning access to, and disclosure of, CPNI and call detail records (collectively "CPNI" as used herein). To that end, before a customer may access his or her CPNI (directly or indirectly), the Company first authenticates the customer without using readily available biographical information (i.e. without the use of social security number, telephone number, account number, bill amount, mother's maiden name, address, date of birth, etc.) and without using caller ID. Instead, authentication is accomplished by providing a randomly generated password to the customer.

Use of CPNI for Marketing Is Limited. Bright House does not use CPNI for the purpose of marketing service offerings among the different categories of service that Bright House provides to subscribers. Bright House does not currently use CPNI to market service offerings among the same category of service to which the customer already subscribes.

Release of CPNI to Third Parties Strictly Limited. Bright House will only release or disclose CPNI to a third party with the customer's written and notarized consent, or pursuant to a valid request from law enforcement, the federal judiciary or other appropriate authority. For example, without the customer's written and notarized consent, customer information will only be disclosed after the requesting party demonstrates that the request is made pursuant to a valid subpoena, court order, search warrant or other legally authorized request.

Release of CPNI to Third Party Vendors. Bright House will only release CPNI to third party vendors pursuant to a written agreement containing the appropriate restrictions regarding the confidentiality and safeguarding of customer information, and then only for the limited purpose of initiating, rendering, billing and/or collecting for services rendered to the subscribers of Bright House. Further, the agents of Bright House do not discuss call detail information over the phone unless (1) the customer is able to provide the relevant call detail information to the agent without the agent's assistance; (2) the customer provides a customer-initiated password that was established without using account information or readily available biographical information; or (3) the agent calls the customer at the telephone number of record.

Online Access Pursuant to Password Protections. Bright House does not provide online access to any CPNI until the customer requesting such access provides a password that has been established by the customer without the use of readily available biographical information or account information.

Release of CPNI at Retail Locations. Bright House does not disclose CPNI to a customer at a retail location until the customer presents a valid photo ID matching the customer's account information.

Notice of Breach. As soon as practicable, and in no event later than seven (7) business days upon learning of a breach, Bright House will notify the United States Secret Service (USSS) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) by electronic means as required by FCC regulations. Bright House will not, under any circumstances, except as provided below, notify customers or disclose a breach to the public until seven (7) full business days have passed after notification to the USSS and the FBI. If the Company receives no response from law enforcement after the 7th full business day, it will promptly proceed to inform the customers whose CPNI was disclosed of the breach. However, Bright House will delay notification to customers or the public upon request of the FBI or USSS.

Notice of Account Changes. Bright House will notify a customer immediately whenever the customer's password, means of authentication, online account or address associated with the account is created or changed. The notification will be made by mail to the pre-existing (not changed) address associated with the account or by phone to the service phone number and will not reveal the changed information.

Additional Processes to Ensure Compliance. Bright House employs a variety of internal and external operating procedures to ensure compliance with CPNI regulations. Such procedures include:

- A) The publication of a corporate privacy policy on Bright House's website and circulation of a CPNI-specific policy within the Company.
- B) Regular communications with Bright House's staff concerning federal, state and local legal requirements governing the use and disclosure of personally identifiable information, including CPNI.
- C) Security systems limiting employee access to subscriber information in paper or electronic form, including CPNI.
- D) Processes for the maintenance of records of those occasions when CPNI is released to third parties.
